CONSIDERING how often the thing is broken nowadays, it is wonderful how the best record manages to hold together.

Today is the tug-of-war in ten States. Tomorrow attention will be turned temporarily from the contemplation of war to politics.

Deland ought to be supremely happy now-a-days. Such an "illuminant bit of a row" she has not seen for 10, these many years.

Memorials of erecting a monument to the late rebel General Forrest. Tennessee had better suppress anarchy before she begins to glorify rebellion.

The slot machine has invaded another field of effort. For 5 cents you can now get a tincture of yourself that would be a conspicuous addition to any rogue's gallery in the land.

Last year a lovely Kentucky girl wrote an essay on "A Model Husband," and this year she married a man in Minneapolis. The western press is agreed that this is another blow at St. Paul.

The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, discussing the Ohio election, says "a vote for McKinley and the straight ticket means a good Republican Governor, a good Republican Senator, a good Republican President next year, and a good government all around."

The name of Bonaparte will figure in New York and Washington society this winter, and its most potent exemplar will be the fair seventeen-year-old daughter of Col. and Mrs. Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte. Miss Bonaparte, on her mother's side, is a great granddaughter of Daniel Webster.

WILLIAMSON, a Missouri murderer, was a callous ruffian, says the Kansas City Star, until the old maids began to bombard him with flowers and maudlin attentions. Then he discovered that he wished to be "alone with God." His wish will be gratified. No reflection is intended on the old maids.

REVIEWING the situation in Ohio, and discussing the probable outcome, the Boston Traveller very truly says that "it is an open secret that the Democrats care more for the Legislatures of Ohio and Iowa than they do for the State officers. They are making a year in advance of the Presidential election, a desperate attempt to secure Electoral votes by Michiganizing these two States."

While ascending Pike's Peak by the new rack railway, about one person in 200 is affected by the rarity of the air at the high altitude. The indications of distress are itching and redness of the nose and then blackness under the eyes. A woman who was dying apparently, on a trip recently, was sent back on the locomotive to the foot of the mountain, where she recovered. The summit is 14,400 feet above the level of the sea.

A KANSAS CITY literary society has narrowed down the question of the coming great American poet to a choice between Eugene Ware and Thomas Brower Peacock, both of Kansas. "These distinguished bards will be gratified with the compliment. It is presumed that Mr. Ware will array himself in Dr. Holmes's mantle while the dreamy Mr. Peacock will slip into Mr. Whittier's shoes. It may be suggested to the society that it has overlooked a successor to Walt Whitman."

THE St. Paul Pioneer Press says: "A more absurd thing was never heard of in Bedlam or politics than the candidacy of Stanford of California for President on the Farmers' Alliance ticket. A man so many times a millionaire that it makes a poor man dizzy to think of it, is to be a leader of a party whose cardinal principles are alleged to be undying opposition to aristocracy, plutocracy, corporations, and aggregated wealth of every description, and, strangest thing of all, he is to be the nominee because he has the 'stuff.'"

BISHOP GRAYTON of Wisconsin favors the opening of the World's Fair on Sunday. He would not have it interfere with religious worship, but he sees no reason why the people should be denied the privilege of seeing it in the afternoon after the churches have closed. It would, if nothing more, be a healthful recreation, which the people stand in need of. Bishop Grayton is the first convert the friends of Sunday opening have gained from the orthodox clergy, but he is a man of recognized piety and influential position in the church, other religious people will quickly join him.

A DRAPEY accident was narrowly averted yesterday when a team attached to an ice wagon ran down Grand avenue, at noon, and collided with the cable power-house on the corner of Seventh. Some ladies, who were passing the corner, came very near being run over by the frantic animals. Below Seventh, the sidewalk was crowded with children just dismissed from the Eighth-street school. Had the runaway continued their course down the sidewalk instead of striking the building there is no telling what havoc they might have caused. This emphasizes the wisdom of a strict enforcement of the hitching ordinance. Delivery teams, no matter what frequent stops they make, or what confidence the drivers may have in their standing proprieties, should be brought rigidly under the rule, and at least be anchored to heavy weights every time they stop.

Today's Elections.

Elections will be held in the following States today:

Virginia will elect one-half its Senate and a full House of Delegates.

Iowa will elect Governor and other State officers and Legislature.

Massachusetts will also elect a State Administrator.

Mississippi will elect three Railroad Commissioners and Legislature.

Nebraska will elect Associate Justice of the Supreme Court and two Regents of the State University.

New Jersey will elect part of the Senate and the Assembly.

Ohio will elect Governor and other State officers and Legislature, and vote upon a proposed amendment to the Constitution providing for uniformity of taxation.

Pennsylvania will elect Treasurer and Auditor General, and vote whether a constitutional convention shall be held, and elect delegates to the same.

New York will elect Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney-General, Engineer and Surveyor, the Senate, the Assembly, ten Justices of the Supreme Court, and a Representative in Congress from the Tenth District.

Maryland will elect Governor and other State officers and Legislature, and vote upon six proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State.

In their last State elections these several States gave the following pluralities on Governor, with the exception of New York, where the vote on Secretary of State is quoted, and Maryland, where the vote on Comptroller is given:

Virginia, Dem.	42,177
Iowa, 1889, Dem.	6,523
Massachusetts, 1890, Dem.	9,053
Mississippi, 1889, Dem.	84,929
Nebraska, 1890, Dem.	1,144
New Jersey, 1889, Dem.	14,333
Ohio, 1890, Rep.	10,970
Pennsylvania, 1890, Rep.	16,334
New York, 1889, Dem.	20,527
Maryland, 1889, Dem.	73,993

*None—no opposition.
In today's election it is hoped that Ohio will reassert her Republicanism, and the Iowa, Massachusetts, Nebraska and possibly New York may be swung into line. As for the Southern States—and New Jersey—of course there is no hope for them.

"The Prince of Premiums."

The one-volume Encyclopedia and Gazetteer which we are offering as a premium with the LOS ANGELES TIMES, as well as the SATURDAY TIMES and WEEKLY MIRROR, is a superb book, illustrated with 80 full-page colored maps and nearly 2000 engravings. We confidently claim for the work, in the language of the publishers, Rand, McNally & Co. of Chicago, that—

"Never before has there been offered to the public a book of reference approaching this in completeness, compactness, or value. It contains 720 pages of encyclopedic information concerning all branches of knowledge, comprising in a condensed form, stripped of unnecessary verbiage, the very cream of the Encyclopedia Britannica, and the latest edition of Chambers' Encyclopedia, with the addition of many American subjects found in neither of the larger encyclopedias."

Besides being a comprehensive gazetteer of universal knowledge, it is also a complete atlas of the world.

Some idea may be gained of the magnitude of this great work, and the vast number of subjects treated of, from the following table:

Number of pages	720
Total number of lines	28,000
Total number of words	1,700,000
Number of subjects	100,000
Total length of columns, inches	21,400
Number of words for one cent	3,500

The book is further particularized in the fourteen-column descriptive Premium List which THE TIMES has just issued, free.

The publishers' retail prices for the Encyclopedia are $8.00 and $10.00 respectively; but the book will be sent by mail, together with one year's subscription to the SATURDAY TIMES and WEEKLY MIRROR, for the unprecedented low price of $3.00. Or it will be furnished with the DAILY TIMES three months, delivered by carrier in any part of the city, for $4.00.

Sample copy to be seen at the counting room.

COMMENTING on the failure of Samuel J. Tilden's will to "hold water" when put to the test of law, an exchange cites parallel cases to show the validity of the old saw that a man who acts as his own lawyer has a fool for a client. Edward Sugden, who was afterward Lord St. Leonards and lord high chancellor, was one of the greatest lawyers England has ever known. He practiced in the Court of Chancery, and more than half his professional life was spent in construing wills. He drew his own will, and it was declared void by the very court in which he had been a most powerful advocate for nearly fifty years. Lord Westbury, another lord high chancellor, wrote out his will, and its provisions were the subject of legal dispute for ten years, and it required the construction of the Court of Chancery to give it effect. Legal history is full of instances where lawyers have drawn their own wills and have made bequests so obscurely described as to either upset the whole will or to require the interpretation of it by a court, with all that implies. Tilden's miscarriage is therefore no particular novelty. It is simply a repetition of legal history.

Scotland Wins the Big Tug.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—The international tug of war ended tonight. Denmark defeated Norway and Germany beat America. Scotland gets first prize in the second, Germany third and Ireland fourth.

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—The first production here of the widely advertised and entitled Dr. Zerkow, a fair sized comedy, last night and the piece was given with the following cast of characters:

Mrs. Brown.....Mrs. George S. Knight
Mrs. Horton.....Miss Emily Maynard
Miss Faint.....Miss Belle Stokes
Mrs. Faint.....Miss Mary Brewer
Mrs. Faint.....Miss Sarah Lawrence
Ellen.....Miss Ida Bell
William Brown (Dr. Bill).....William Wilson
Mr. Horton.....Earl Barrett
George Webster.....Leighton Baker
Mr. Horton.....Daniel Jarrett
Bugs.....Walter G. Horton
Police Sergeant.....Thomas Dupuy
The performance was successful, seeing that it elicited a good deal of laughter, and the acting was quite up to the merits of the piece. Mrs. Knight appeared in some very rich and striking costumes. The Strokes exhibited the "kangaroo" leap and trapeze the audience to a skirt dance in each act, besides accentuating the phrases of the dialogue with some of the most astonishing kicks. William Wilson was a very rapid "Dr. Bill," and sufficiently rapid to keep the dialogue going in a most brilliant and conventional "duke," but there was, especially in his voice and accent, a good deal of the conventional "duke" and a really bright bit of acting was done by Ida Bell in the small part of "Ellen," the servant.

As for the story, or plot of the piece, it is hardly worth detailing. It is an English adaptation of a French farce that under the name of Dr. Zerkow had a run of over 400 nights in Paris, where its success was largely owing to dialogue and situations that had to do with material of an astonishingly comic nature. The piece could be presented to an English speaking public. Even as expunged and rearranged it is not entirely free from the Gallic forms of wit and the legerdemain, and, to particular people, appear to be a little risky. It performs its advertised purpose, however, of raising a laugh, and will no doubt, well patronized this evening and tomorrow.

THE NEXT ATTRACTION.—Sardou's version of Clopintra, as adopted and arranged by Fanny Davenport, will be presented at the Grand Opera house on Tuesday evening, next.

It has been pronounced to have surpassed all previous attempts in the way of melodrama, and is a most interesting and in the title role is seen at her best. Her husband, Melbourne McDowell, as "Ans," leads a company of over 100 people, including actors, actresses, and stage assistants. The engagement has been the principal topic of conversation among theater-goers for several weeks, and is distinguished as being the first to grace the first performance here.

Held for Burial.

Wah Sing, the Chinese diamond robber, was held by Justice Austin for burglary yesterday in the sum of $1600. Sing is a laundryman and drives about town collecting clothes. A few days ago he called on one of his customers, and a few minutes after he left the lady of the house missed an $80 diamond ring. She reported the matter to the police, and a couple of detectives were sent out and captured Sing before he reached his wash house. He was taken to the police station, and his person was thoroughly searched, and the diamond ring was found. The officers were about to give up and release Mr. Sing, when one of them happened to run his hand in a little hole in the cushion on Sing's wagon seat. He drew out a piece of paper which had been carefully wrapped around the diamond.

He was arrested and held to answer as above stated, and will probably get a long term in State's prison.

FACE TO FACE.

The Senate, and the Republicans are confident of gaining at least one seat now held by a Democrat. The Assembly now stands 68 to 80 in favor of the Democrats. They expect to retain control of this branch. But there are several districts which last year returned Democrats which are likely to elect Republicans this year, so the Democrats must make gains of new seats to hold their own. An additional reason for making an active canvass for members of the Legislature is that the present Senate will vote for a United States Senator in 1893 to succeed Hiseock.

The State offices to be filled are: Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney-General and State Engineer and Surveyor, eight Supreme Court Justices, thirty-two Senators and 128 Assemblymen.

IN NEBRASKA.

THE Democrats Allowing the State to Go by Default.
LINCOLN (Nebr.), Nov. 2.—[By the Associated Press.] The great interest felt in the election in this State has seldom been equalled in Nebraska. It is not because of the high offices at stake, for only a Supreme judge and regents of the university, will be elected, but because it is to determine whether or not the Farmers' Alliance or Independent party is to gain political supremacy in the next respect the present situation is without parallel in the past thirty or forty years—the Democratic party, without candidates, allowing the State to go by default. This is the more remarkable when it is remembered that but one year ago their candidate, Boyd, was elected Governor and only deprived of his high office on the grounds of non-naturalization. The present Democratic party is due to the refusal of their nominee for Supreme Judge to make the race, whereupon their candidates for regents alike withdrew, and the field was left to the Republicans. The Republicans nominated A. M. Post, supreme judge, Charles Marsh and H. P. Shumway for regents. The Independents nominated J. W. Edgerton for supreme judge, A. Dallanand and E. A. Hadley for regents. Some Prohibitionists nominated M. A. Bittenger for supreme judge and Rev. William Gort and Mrs. Caroline M. Woodward for regents.

All parties admit that the contest between the Republicans and farmers of the Independent party will be very close. The Prohibition vote naturally being light. In no other State in the Union has the campaign been so entirely and exclusively devoted to the franchise question. Even the tariff has been almost lost sight of in the sharp controversy which has been waged between Republicans and Independents upon the silver question. In their State conventions the Republicans endorsed protection and the Independents denounced it. The Republicans have no doubt the Republican silver coinage act, but denounced unlimited silver coinage. The Independents demanded the issue of legal tender notes by the Government in sufficient volume to transact the business of the country in lieu of the present national bank notes; loans to the people and national coinage of silver.

There is no reason to believe that the Independents' Alliance party has declined much in popularity in the past year, and with the Democrats out of the field, they ought to carry the State if there is anything in the confident declarations of their leaders. After all, the result largely depends upon the vote of the farmers, while the Independents are loudly claiming their support, the Republicans are just as emphatically proclaiming that the Democrats are disgusted with the visionary anti-treasury scheme, and will generally vote against the Republicans to checkmate the craze.

THE KANSAS CAMPAIGN.

Republicans and the Third Party Men Pitted Against Each Other.
TOPEKA (Kan.), Nov. 2.—[By the Associated Press.] The election in Kansas is not fraught with that general interest that politics in this mercurial State usually inspires. Not only is it an "off-year" election, but an election in which it is not even the choice of a State officer. Yet it must not be understood that it is without interest with the State. It has been one of the most hotly contested "off-year" campaigns ever witnessed in Kansas, both leading parties making determined efforts to break the strength and growth of the Farmers' Alliance or People's party. Particularly is this true of the Republicans, who, in the Assembly, they expect to gain at least two members. They also hope to regain several members in districts which went Democratic unexpectedly last year. The next Assembly will probably stand 38 to 28 in favor of the Democrats. Allen L. McDermott, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, is confident of electing all seven of the Senators, which would make the Senate 16 Democrats and 5 Republicans.

THE OLD DOMINION.

Alliance Men Likely to Get Into Power in Virginia.
RICHMOND (Va.), Nov. 2.—[By the Associated Press.] The election in this State tomorrow is for the purpose of selecting an entire House of Delegates and half of the Senate. No State office is involved. The Republicans as a party, have refrained from placing candidates in the field, although here and there a Republican or Independent may be found. The Democratic candidates in the main are Alliance men, and while some were nominated for that reason, others were not. It is safe to say the Democrats will carry at least twenty counties in the State, and a majority of the Senatorial districts, but a majority of those so elected will probably be in sympathy with the Alliance.

MISSISSIPPI.

Alliance Candidates in the Field Against the Democrats.
JACKSON (Miss.), Nov. 2.—[By the Associated Press.] The State tomorrow will be held the first election under the new Constitution. The Legislature to be elected will hold four years, and will elect two United States senators, but as most of the candidates have been instructed for Walthall and George, they will doubtless be their own successors. Three railroad commissioners are also to be elected. There is little opposition to the Democratic nominees. The Alliance, however, has nominated candidates for the Legislature in a few counties.

full party vote for an "off year." In support of this claim, they point to the fact that there are no disagreements of any kind among the party leaders, as there were last year when Pattison (Dem.) was elected Governor over Delamater (Rep.) by a plurality of 18,554. Chairman Waters of the Republican Committee today estimated the majority for the Republican ticket at 45,000 to 48,000. Chairman Kerr of the Democratic State Committee claimed that the Democrats would come to Philadelphia with 38,000 majority. As the Republicans only claim 25,000 majority in Philadelphia this would leave 13,000 Democratic majority. The Democratic leaders also claim that Tilden, their candidate for State Treasurer, will run strongly ahead of the ticket.

THE BAY STATE.

Republicans Confident of Electing Their Entire Ticket.

BOSTON, Nov. 2.—[By the Associated Press.] The election in Massachusetts tomorrow is with Governor, and other State officers, the Executive Council and Legislature. Two amendments to the Constitution are also to be voted on, one abolishing the poll tax as a prerequisite of voting, the other making a majority of members a quorum in each branch of the Legislature. Five tickets are in the field for State officers as follows:

Republican—Governor, Charles H. Allen; Lieutenant-Governor, William H. Hall; Treasurer, George A. Marsden; Secretary of State, William M. Olin; Auditor, John W. Kimball; Attorney-General, Albert E. Pillsbury.

Democratic—Governor, William E. Russell; Lieutenant-Governor, John W. Conran; Secretary of State, Edridge Cushman; Treasurer, James S. Grinnell; Auditor, William D. Trefry; Attorney-General, George M. Stearns.

Prohibition—Governor, Charles E. Kimball; Lieutenant-Governor, Augustus R. Smith.

People's—Governor, Henry Wynn; Lieutenant-Governor, William J. Shields.

Social Labor—Governor H. W. Robinson; Lieutenant-Governor, George H. Pease.

The campaign has been one of the most vigorous ever fought in Massachusetts. The Democrats are confident that Gov. Russell will be re-elected and have some hope for the rest of the State ticket. The Republicans have no doubt of the election of all candidates on their ticket save Governor, and expect a plurality of at least 10,000 for Col. Allen. In view of the expected increase in the total vote, it will indicate a decided gain for the Democrats. If the Democrats elect any State officers after Governor, the Republicans will retain a majority in the House and probably secure a small majority in the Senate.

CONGRESSIONAL TESTS.

Six Members of the House to be Elected Today.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—[By the Associated Press.] Six Congressmen will be chosen in the state elections tomorrow. Three of the former incumbents were Republicans and three Democrats. Four of the vacancies are in New York state. In the second district the vacancy caused by the resignation of Daniel A. Boody (Dem.) is to be filled. The candidates are ex-Mayor Chapin of Brooklyn (Dem.) and Henry Bristow (Rep.). There is a vacancy in the tenth district, caused by the death of Gen. Spinola (Dem.). The candidates are W. Burke Cockran (Rep.), James B. Townsend (Rep.) and John Hauser (Social Labor). In the twelfth district the vacancy caused by the resignation of R. P. Flower (Dem.) is to be filled for Governor. The candidates for his place are William McMichael (Rep.) and Joseph J. Little (Dem.). John J. Flick (Social Labor) and David David Devenny (County Dem.) are in the twenty-second district the vacancy is caused by the resignation of L. W. Russell. The candidates are Gen. N. Curtis (Rep.) and Wilbur F. Porter (Dem.). In the fifth Michigan district a successor to Melbourn H. Ford (Rep.) deceased, will be chosen. The candidates are John L. Jolley (Rep.) and J. M. Woods (Dem.), and Henry W. Smith (Ind.).

NEW JERSEY.

A Sent in the United States Senate Depends on the Result.

JERSEY CITY (N. J.), Nov. 2.—[By the Associated Press.] State Senators will be elected in seven counties. They will vote for a successor to United States Senator Blodgett (Dem.) Four of these counties are always Democratic. The Republicans hope to carry the other three. In the Assembly they expect to gain at least two members. They also hope to regain several members in districts which went Democratic unexpectedly last year. The next Assembly will probably stand 38 to 28 in favor of the Democrats. Allen L. McDermott, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, is confident of electing all seven of the Senators, which would make the Senate 16 Democrats and 5 Republicans.

MILLIONS MISSING.

Collapse of the Maverick Bank of Boston.

Its President and Other Officers Arrested on Grave Charges.

The Bank Said to Have Been Involved with Irving A. Evans.

Charges That the Institution's Funds Were Used in Wild Speculations—A Receiver Appointed—What the Depositors May Expect.

By Telegraph to the Times.

Boston, Nov. 2.—[By the Associated Press.] The doors of the Maverick Bank here notices this morning. One read: "Closed by order of National Bank Examiner Ewer." Immediately beneath was the following: "Notes due at this bank today will be found at the Second National Bank." Two policemen who stood at the entrance had little to do as there was no excitement and but few people seeking entrance to the banking rooms. Lewis Lombard, second vice-president and eastern manager of the Lombard Investment Company, said that the deposits of the company in the Maverick Bank were immaterial and that his concern would not be affected by the failing of the bank, except temporary inconvenience in the matter of keeping accounts. All customers who held checks on the Maverick Bank on return of the same would be given checks on other banks in which the Lombard Company deposited. Several such checks were presented this morning and redeemed. The different national banks will immediately call a meeting of directors to ratify the vote of the Clearing-house Association. Arrangements will soon be made that checks against depositors in the Maverick National Bank still be honored at some convenient bank where a committee will make its headquarters.

The losses of the Maverick National Bank are estimated at upwards of $2,000,000, which wipes out the reported surplus and undivided profits of $1,000,000, the capital of $400,000 and all of the 100 per cent. assessment that the shareholders may be called upon to contribute. But as nearly a majority of the bank shares are owned by President Potter it is doubtful if the full assessment can be collected. Irregularities of the Maverick Bank extend back over a period of more than two years.

The general opinion is that the action of the associated banks in relieving the depositors, by advancing on their claims, will avert any disastrous effect from the failure. The amount advanced may be 50 per cent. or more of the net deposit, dependent on the strength of the claims. Loans due the bank by depositors must first be adjusted. President Potter has made an assignment of his individual estate, but it is impossible to get a detailed statement for some days, as Potter is sick at home. The Boston banks voted to assess themselves 3 per cent. of the amount of their loans. This will raise about $400,000 for a loan to the Maverick Bank.

At a meeting of all the Boston national banks at the Clearing-house this morning resolutions were unanimously adopted that all the bank associations should at once combine to relieve the necessities of the depositors of the Maverick National Bank by making an advance to such depositors as they could secure. The assignment of their claims against the Maverick bank. A committee was then appointed to carry the resolutions into effect. It was voted that the Maverick Bank be expelled from the association. Mr. French says this morning that he has not made an assignment. He states he fully believes that if the affairs of the Maverick National Bank are managed with wisdom and prudence by the receiver the stockholders and depositors will get back all the money they entrusted to the bank's care.

Asa P. Potter, president, Jonas H. French and Thomas Dana, directors of the bank, were arrested by the United States Marshal tonight. The warrants upon which the arrests were made charge embezzlement and misappropriation of the funds of the Maverick National Bank. Although the sums mentioned in the warrants are nominal and comparatively small, it is understood that the amounts involved will reach $1,500,000 in the case of Potter and $600,000 in that of French and $300,000 in that of Dana. The arrests were made quite late and Dana was the only one who made an attempt to secure bail. He was brought before United States Commissioner Hallett and furnished sureties in the sum of $75,000, but the names of the bondsmen were withheld. In Potter's case bail was fixed at $150,000 and that of French at $

BUSINESS.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES.
 LOS ANGELES, Nov. 3, 1891.
 There was a reduction of 40 cents per barrel in the price of Los Angeles flour today. Agents of northern brands of flour, however, made no change in prices, and stated that they did not believe that their companies would meet the 1-cent reduction. They seemed to think that the reduction made would have considerable effect in cutting down their sales, while others expressed themselves as confident that the action of the local mill men would not have that result to any marked extent. They claimed that the strong and advancing wheat market does not warrant a reduction at this time. The local mill people, however, seemed to think that they could sell flour at the reduced rate with fair profit.

A New York dispatch says: "New California seedlings of wheat are offered at 7 cents per bushel. About 18,500 boxes of California wheat arrived during the latter part of last week. Nearly half went to New England, and the remainder to the West. The quality of the seedlings is shown by the following figures:

The following is a statement of the visible supply of grain in California, as reported by the California Agricultural Experiment Station, October 31, 1891, as compared with the New York Produce Exchange:

Wheat, 30,235,000 bushels, 1,588,000 cwt.
 Corn, 3,052,000 bushels, 221,000 cwt.
 Oats, 4,188,000 bushels, 260,000 cwt.
 Barley, 3,175,000 bushels, 470,000 cwt.

The Mark Lane Express, in its review of the English grain trade says: "Foreign wheat is in demand at 1s 10d. Flour is at 1s 10d. Spring wheat, barley, oats and maize are strong at 2s 6d."

The Standard Mercantile Agency reports that the California Agricultural Experiment Station and Territories for the week ending Friday, as compared with twelve for the previous week, were as follows:

Wheat, 30,235,000 bushels, 1,588,000 cwt.
 Corn, 3,052,000 bushels, 221,000 cwt.
 Oats, 4,188,000 bushels, 260,000 cwt.
 Barley, 3,175,000 bushels, 470,000 cwt.

Justice Austin had a round dozen drunks before him yesterday, and they were given from three to ten days on the chain gang. Sunday is getting to be a great day for drunks.

There are the following undelivered telegrams at the Western Union Telegraph office for H. E. Ketchum, C. G. Crowell, M. A. P. Smith, A. Canney, E. J. Murray, Capt. John Harrington, Alfred T. Mittinger.

Mrs. Browning, who was so roughly treated by a Spring street lodging house keeper, contemplates bringing legal proceedings against him. She says she was badly treated, and without any reason, and will probably test the matter in the courts.

Ladies' Annex.

The Ladies' Annex held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce with the new officers in their places.

Miss Bishop of Pasadena gave quite an extensive report on home industries, and brought a number of samples of evaporated dried fruit, flower seeds, etc.

Mrs. Winslow read an interesting paper advocating the establishment of an exhibit from the annex at the World's Fair, and a general discussion followed.

It was suggested that an adobe house be a feature of the exhibit, the grounds surrounding it to be ornamented with rare trees and plants peculiar to California. These could be grown and transported in large pots, and would undoubtedly be a great attraction to Eastern eyes. It was moved and carried that conditional application for space at the World's Fair be made immediately, and the annex specially designed that an exhibit, being interested in the display should be present at the next meeting of the annex.

RAILROAD AFFAIRS.

To Formally Open the New Long Beach Line.

The Electric Cars now Running to University.—More Charges of Passenger and Freight Rate Cutting.—Railroad Notes.

Yesterday regular passenger service was inaugurated on the University line of the Consolidated Electric Railroad.

The cars did a good day's business, and all the passengers who traveled over the new road enjoyed the pleasant ride.

The route runs on Fourth street, from Spring to Broadway, then on Broadway to Tenth, on Tenth to Flower, on Flower to Washington, on Washington to Estrella avenue, on Estrella avenue to Twenty-third, on Twenty-third to Union avenue, Union avenue to Hoover, Hoover to Olive, Olive to McClintock, on which thoroughfare the road runs just back of the University buildings to the Southern Pacific Railroad station. For much of the distance the new line runs through an excellent section of the city not previously supplied with street railway facilities, and the road will doubtless have good patronage from the first.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE EXCURSION.

General Manager Burnett of the Los Angeles Terminal road, has tendered to the Chamber of Commerce a complimentary excursion by special train to Long Beach on Saturday of this week.

The chamber will have charge of all invitations and, it is presumed, will limit them to the members of the association, as the railroad cannot furnish sufficient cars to carry a larger number. Further details will be known later in the week.

SCAP HEAP.

A Raymond & Whitcomb excursion is expected to arrive today.

The Atlantic & Pacific Railroad has let the contract for building fifty dwellings for the use of the company's employees. The buildings will be erected at Winslow, Williams and the Needles.

A new time card went into effect on the Terminal road Sunday. It provides for one extra train each way between Los Angeles and Pasadena, both to run before 8 a.m., to accommodate early commuters.

The Southern Pacific officials in their private car visited Phoenix, Ariz., the other day, and anxiously inquired about the movements of the Santa Fe in that section. The Southern Pacific fears that new little line which is being built down from Prescott to Phoenix, and projected to some point beyond.

Mr. Dunn, the new agent of the Los Angeles Terminal Railway at Long Beach, has made contracts for fifty-four car-loads of freight to be shipped from Long Beach to Los Angeles and other points. The celebration of the opening of the road will be held next Saturday at Long Beach. There will be a barbecue and the driving of the golden spike.

A Oard to the Public.

Considering the patronage bestowed upon us during the last three months, and also the prospect of brisk times in the city this coming winter, the managers of the Wax Works feel justified in keeping the exhibition open for some time further, and trust that by adding new features and attractions continually, to merit the support of the public in the future as in the past. We have, therefore, secured a large annex to the main hall, which is being rapidly filled, with new groups and figures just arrived from Paris. The prices of admission will not be raised. Respectfully,
THE MANAGEMENT.

THE CO-OPERATIVE SUGAR FACTORY.

More Land Subscribed at Yesterday Afternoon's Meeting.

The cooperative sugar factory meeting at Hammel & Denker's ranch, yesterday afternoon, was well attended and 250 acres more were subscribed, making a total of over 2000 acres.

The Mexican landowners, who have hitherto held back, are now coming forward in good shape, beginning to understand the workings and merits of the system. One of its chief advantages is shown in the case of families with a number of grown children. In this case the large expense of cultivation, etc., can be saved, and the income proportionately increased, making ten acres in sugar beats, under the cooperative system, ample to support a family in comfort and leave a handsome surplus for the savings bank.

Another meeting will be held at the same place on Monday next at 2 p.m., when it is expected that the matter will be brought to a definite and satisfactory conclusion.

NO MONEY IS WANTED!

It won't cost a cent to call and examine our stock and prices. We have the largest assortment in the city.

WE have some overcoats,
And some have velvet collars.
It makes the people laugh right out,
When we tell the price—ten dollars.

We have some little suits,
And they are made of wool;
Others say they are "just too cute"
To wear to church or school;

We have some all-wool suits
In blue, gray, black and brown;
Customers say they are the best
They have seen, thus far, in town.

We have some ulsters
And cape overcoats, you know;
The style is late, and bound to take;
The swells will tell you so.

We ask before you buy,
To look before you leap,
And if you pay us a call,
You'll find clothing both good and cheap,

DON'T RUN-AWAY WITH THE IDEA

WHAT any man or firm in this town can undersell us. We buy for cash down on the nail, and we nail the bargains. No man can undersell us; no man shall undersell us.
